

Filled Altars Last Night

God's presence was clearly evident during last night's service as Pastor Tim Ruhl preached. Hundreds flooded the altar following the message.

Monday, September 14, 2009

Today's Weather

Mostly Sunny

High Temperature: 74

Low Temperature: 56

Sunrise: 6:49 a.m. • Sunset: 7:16 p.m.

Featured Exhibitors

Stop by to see the variety of exhibitors located in the Convention Center following the services.

■ Missions: Int'l Board of Jewish Missions

Meet Glenn Border who is here representing this worthy missions organization.

■ Fundamental Media

Pastor Joshua Irmeler has a burden to provide first-class media for Baptist ministries.

■ Church Planter: Eric Hite

Eric & Vishnue Hite are planting a new church in Jackson, Mississippi in October.

■ Music: Faith Music Missions

Visit this booth for Christ-honoring music resources for your ministry.

Convention Center is located in the Commons building

BURGERS

chips, dessert, and a drink for $5.00

available in the convention center immediately after tonight's service

PC TODAY Snapshots

Costs in '86 - 1st Yr. of Conference

Income	Gallon of Gas
$22,400.00	84¢
House	Postage Stamp
$44,040.00	22¢
New Car	Loaf of Bread
$9,255.00	$1.12

© 2009 PC Today
National Pastors' & Workers'
Conference • Santa Clara, CA

www.nvbc.org • Dr. Jack Trieber, Pastor

PC TODAY

PASTORS' CONFERENCE TODAY

The "Early Birds" Get the Word

Sunday kicked off our conference with powerful preaching.

Santa Clara, CA
Tim Trieber

Many delegates arrived to the conference "early" on Sunday, and they were not disappointed. Dr. David Gibbs preached a powerful, convicting message from Philippians.

Following the morning service, Pastor & Mrs. Trieber enjoyed a luncheon with the "early birds".

The auditorium was packed for the Sunday night service. The choir opened up the service singing When We All Get to Heaven. Pastor Tom Ruhl challenged everyone to go from "ordinary" to "spectacular" in their Christian life. The day concluded with a fellowship with the GSBC staff in the college building.

Welcome: Pastor Trieber greets delegates who travelled from out-of-state for the conference.

24 Years of Reunion & Revival

More than two decades of preaching, singing, fellowship, and training

Santa Clara, CA
Rebecca Trieber

This year marks the 24th meeting of this unique conference in Santa Clara, California.

All of the keynote speakers from that first conference have gone to be with our Lord in Heaven.

However, their message and the purpose of this conference have not changed, but rather have been strengthened through the years. This conference has come to be known as a place for hard preaching, revival singing, and a biblical spirit of unity among like-minded brethren.

We anticipate what God will do this year!

A Time of Refreshing

Various activities, including the annual golf tournament, are scheduled for the week.

The Singing Church: Sunday's music program brought spirit of revival to the services.

FREE Popcorn!

Popcorn, coffee, and other light refreshment are provided free of charge in the convention center.

PC online www.nvbc.org/pc

Take a look at the new National Pastors' Workers' Conference website! Visit us every day during the conference to see updated pictures, newsletters, and watch videos from the conference!